

Practicing Extended Response Questions

Read the question and identify how many marks it is worth.

Marks allocated:

Circle the HSC verb/s that tells you HOW to answer the question.

What does the HSC verb require you to do to answer this question?

Underline the syllabus area/s in the question

List the key areas of the syllabus to address when answering this question:

Prepare a mind map of points to include in your response. Use arrows to highlight the links between syllabus content that need to be drawn out in your response.

Write a response! Be sure to include sufficient detail in your response and support your answers with specific examples and key terminology.